It has no superior for the purposes for which it is intended. Buy it now. Obtainable everywhere.

Miss Thresa O'Brien of Jackson, Miss., and Misses Inez and Ida Belle Walker spent Wednesday in Winton with Miss Caltha Campbell.

Taking Big Chances.

Obtainable everywhere.

"Two years ago I suffered from frequent attacks of stomach trouble and biliousness," writes Miss Emma Verbryke, Lima, Ohio. "I could eat very little food that agreed with me and I became so dizzy and sick at my stomach to keep from falling. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets advertised I decided to try them. I improved rapidly." Obtainable everywhere.

A GREAT LECTURE ON POPULAR ART

Wonderfully Interesting Treatise on Subject That Scores Are Interested In—Something New and Novel.

The Chautauqua for this season brings one attraction at least that is in the nature of an innovation. It is George E. Colby of Chicago, who will deliver a lecture on art.

Now, that may sound prosy enough to those who have erroneous notions about art, but it will be a welcome announcement to the ears of all the people who know anything about Mr. Colby and his work.

Mr. Colby served for years as cartoonist on the Chicago Daily News.

GEORGE E. COLBY.

In that capacity his genius for sketching with his pen had a grand chance to develop, and it did. But he felt deeper call to a more profound study and has applied himself to it as a gracious and wholesome task.

The result is a finished lecture, full of profitable hints and information to all who are even primarily interested in art. He is also a rapid sketch artist with the crayon and makes free use of it in the illustration of his work.

Colby has spent many years on the platform in art recitals and has built up for himself a splendid reputation. He will make a big hit at the Chautauqua.

THE LAND OF WAR AND WOMEN

Paraguay and All Her Wonders Brought to Chautauqua For First Time.

E. A. Brinton Recounts Episodes of a Five Year Residence in a Strange, Weird Country.

One of the pleasant surprises of the Chautauqua will be the lecture by Edward A. Brinton on "Paraguay—The Land of War and Women."

Brinton is qualified for this job as few men available for Chautauqua are. He spent years in the heart of Paraguay and studied the people in a painstaking and thorough way. He has been a great traveler and recently finished a tour much longer than the distance around the earth.

He delivers an exhaustive study of Paraguay, her people and her institutions. He treats in an interesting way of her vicious element, her women, the social evil, polygamy, monetary system, laws, sanitation—in fact, the very things that all students want to hear about Latin America.

While in Paraguay Mr. Brinton had some dramatic experience and knows the color of native blood and the force of the lawless element. He weaves many a thrilling story into his lecture, and some people have said it is better than the movies as an entertainment.

His anecdotes are rich and spicy. There is not a dull moment from first to last. He imparts as much information in an hour as one could gather in many days of study.

Albert Young went to Kansas City Tuesday to spend the day on business.

A marriage license has been issued to Amos Viles and Myrtle Braymon, both of Lexington.

Mrs. V. B. Butner of Pueblo, Colo., who is visiting relatives here, and Miss Irene Schneider spent Sunday in Higginsville.

Mrs. Dave Barnes, and little son, Dave, Jr., went to Kansas City Sunday morning for a visit.

John McFadin of Woodward County, Okla., arrived Sunday, being called here by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Francis E. McFaddin.

William Herbey and Arthur Davis of Kansas City arrived Sunday morning for a visit at the home of Robert Horn.

Misses Hellen and Edna Hays returned to their home in Sedalia Sunday morning after a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Culley.

Miss Anna McOwens of Kansas City arrived Sunday morning for a visit here with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Geraughty.

Arthur Petsch, who is attending the School of Mines at Rolla, Mo., arrived home Sunday for a visit with his home folks.
